A Treasure in Art

Illustrator and designer Laura Garvin brings imagination, nostalgia, and vibrant images to life through her artwork. Based in Pittsburgh, her whimsical style blends modern digital techniques with the warmth and familiarity of traditional art styles while giving adults a touch of childhood wonder. Beyond her creative work, Laura serves as an illustrator and Social Media Coordinator for SCBWI Pennsylvania: West and has collaborated with a variety of regional and national clients. Her passion for art, community, and creativity shines through every piece, making her work both memorable and delightfully inspiring. Not only an annual participant of the East Palestine Turkey Trot, Laura graduated from East Palestine High School in the Class of 2013. Read more about Laura Garvin's accomplishments in the November Issue of the East Palestine Newsletter, publishing in early November.

Full City Pop Up at the Dairy Mill

As the coffee shop building for Full City Roastery continues construction, have you been wanting to get a taste of Full City coffee before its location opens in East Palestine? Full City sips will be available at the Dairy Mill in early November, featured a few times throughout the week! Be sure to follow Full City Roastery on socials to stay updated!
